PAY OF LEGISLATORS. The meinbers of our General Assembly have returned from the orduous labors of their session of four days with the checks in their poskers authorizing them to draw from the Istate Treasury the sam which is due them for for four days' work, do not know how to account for the fact that they have received the ks for six dillers. We suggest that the distanting officer was excited to unusual liberalicy by the extra industry of the body in accomplishing a great amount of work to a short sioners. time and thus establishing a favorable proce-deat for the future.

No question, the compensation of our State (filers is ridisulously small and utterly toads- Hook Company.

The Governor announced the following exquate to the necessities of men in such positions or to the maintenance of respectability in livlag white in the service of the public. It makes it necessary that the persons chosen to the offices shall be men of such means that they can affird to work for less than they gat, or those Gurdon H. Members of the Legislature who are not of the first class shove named, are compelled to obtain quarters in theap bilitding-houses where their exponses will not exerced their pay, and the State loses the services of some of the very best men who connet or will not afford to live as they must live if they accept office. What proportion of the a emperatrom the country towns, for insteuce, can afford to go to Providence and board at respectable places in that city at rates cared to their compensation? And what town is willing to send such senstors and representatives as may in many cases be preferable, who will have to live in houses of an inferior grade? The boys who not us pages to the Assembly receive double the pay of the members, if we are not misinformed, and their compensation is none too large. One of them j cosely railied a member, ye-terday, on the fact that he belonged to a privileged class of officers and received twice as much as the perion addressed.

The reading clerk at the floure is apparently as auxlous as the meinters to get through the work, and in some unimportant bills outils to read yer batim. This has often been the practice before, and is a good one to follow, no there are very few of the legislators who give their attention while sets are being tead. Yesterday one of these unimportant reports came up, and the clerk passed over some pf it. The Speaker, who always loves a jeto "as well as the next man," discovered the omission and asked that they have the set of Alexand Language and asked that they be read. Afterward he remonstrated with the clerk for "ekipping" without authority, ad-ding that he was "supposed to be the skipper of

In a country where the natural desire of the people is to reach the highest point in any, it is very difficult for access to be obtained without the most arduous labor. Public opinion is extremely exacting and not siways just; but often unjust and crediction has produced the most beneficial results; the greatest improvements have been made under constituted disc unagements, and in many successful efforts defeat seemed certain to all except these concerned. In no one branch of orthan there been been more trials and failures, and in no situation in the production of the steem of the st been been more trials and failures, and in no single instrument is there so many different parist to perfect in order to make the whole a success as a Piano-Forte, this is always attended with great expense, requiring large capital and patient perseverance. Grovesters & Co. 499 Broadway, N. Y., commenced manufacturing Pianos thirty-tit years ago, and is one of the oldest houses in the country. They differed from the rest of the makers in this respect—they aimed to make the best introcement, and to sell it for the smallest Profit. These Pianos to day cannot be excelled. profit. These Piaces to-day cannot be exceiled. Their sloring quality is pure, full, and easily retained through the most lengthy passages. For power they are conparalleled, and are celebrated for their great brilliancy, exquisite touch, and elegance of style and finish.
